

Map showing the structure of northeastern Adams County. Elevations and contours east of the line A-B, are based on the top of No. 2 coal; those west of the line are based on the top of the Salem limestone.