

LEGEND

- County line
- Political Township line
- Section line
- Section number
- Road
- Railroad
- Farm line
- Producing well, with quarter section number for reference to Tables of Well Data
- Abandoned well
- Dry hole
- Show of oil
- Gas well
- Show of gas
- Abandoned gas well
- Contours giving the elevation of the top of the surficial sand above sea level (except in York pool where the datum is 100 feet below sea level)
- "Depression" contours
- Lines of cross sections. To left, section on Plate IX; to right, section on Plate VII.
- Change of contour horizon
- Contour horizon (See Pl. XXIII)
- Siggins pool: Upper Siggins sand: A
- York pool: York sand: D
- North Casey pool: Lower "gas" sand: C
- Casey pool: Casey sand: E
- Martinsville pool: Basal Pennsylvanian (Casey) sand: D
- North Johnson pool: Claypool sand: D (Over most of pool); Upper Partlow sand: F (Over sec. 12, 13, and part of 14)

Detailed map of the middle part of the Clark County oil field, showing the area of the North Casey, Casey, Martinsville, Siggins, Vevay Park, York and North Johnson pools; their structure (in green); and the location of all their wells and dry holes (in red), numbered for reference to the Tables of Well Data. For other structure maps of the Siggins, North Casey, and Martinsville pools, see Plates XXVII-XXXV.